Study on TV ad spots in first 2 weeks of campaign

By Romel W. Domingo and Jocelyn R. Uy

THE CIRCUS IS ON TV, AND IS COSTING SENATORIAL CANDIdates lots of money.

If you regularly watch news programs, you have probably seen the political ads of Surigao del Sur Rep. Prospero Pichay, a senatorial candidate of the administration's Team Unity.

A study by Nielsen Media Research Philippines (NMRP) found that Pichay had spent the most (some P33 million) for TV ad spots in the first two weeks of the campaign.

The campaign period for senatorial candidates began on Feb. 13.

Reelectionist Senators Manuel Villar and Ralph Recto spent P30.39 million and P22.79 million, respectively.

The Nielsen study said GMA 7 cornered 56 percent of the money spent by politicians on TV ads; ABS-CBN 2, 42 percent; and ABC 5, 2 percent.

The heavy spending has caught the eye of the Commission on Elections, which is reminding political parties to submit their statements of expenses on time or risk being penalized.

Maceda blames Villar for Kiko fiasco in GO

By Dona Z. Pazzibugan

HOW DID THE CONFUSION START?

It was Senate President Manuel Villar who accepted former President Joseph Estrada's offer that he and Sen. Francis "Kiko" Pangilinan be included in the Genuine Opposition's senatorial slate as "guest candidates," ex-Sen. Ernesto Maceda said yesterday.

Maceda, a close Estrada ally, said Villar appeared to speak on behalf of Pangilinan when he agreed to the offer made by the former President last Feb. 18.

Villar's consent seems to be at the root of the confusion about Pangilinan's inclusion in the GO slate, despite Pangilinan's insistence that—like Villar—he will campaign as an independent candidate.

Maceda and Makati Mayor Jejomar Binay yesterday ended the opposition's three-week ambivalence about Pangilinan, declaring he had been officially dropped.

"The GO slate is now officially 11 sans Kiko," campaign spokesperson Adel Tamano, flanked by Binay and Maceda, announced in a news conference at their headquarters in Mandaluyong City.

"This is a final decision," said Binay. "This is what we've been saying all along," he said.

GO's first major out-of-town rally canceled

By Nestor P. Burgos Jr.
Inquirer Visayas

ILOILO CITY—THE FIRST MAJOR RALLY BY the Genuine Opposition's senatorial slate in Iloilo was abruptly canceled at 8 o'clock last night due to an unconfirmed threat.

Two entertainers—Imelda Garcia and Tiya Pusit—were working up a crowd of about 100 attending the GO rally at the Rotary Amphitheater in front of the Iloilo Provincial Capitol building at around 7:30 p.m. when provincial administrator Manuel Mejorada went up the stage and announced that the rally had been called off because of a threat.

Mejorada later told reporters that the threat included phone calls and text messages received by unnamed close allies of Gov. Niel Tupas Sr., which warned of a "serious incident" should the rally proceed as scheduled.

Mejorada said the decision to call off the rally was reached by Senate President Franklin Drilon, Tupas and GO campaign

GMA revamps campaign team, names Samar gov 'action' man

By Gil C. Cabacungan Jr.

PRESIDENT MACAPAGAL-ARROYO IS SHUFfling Team Unity's movers and shakers by tapping Eastern Samar Gov. Benjamin Evardone as the administration ticket's point man to replace veteran campaign strategist Reli German.

German, the architect of the presidential campaigns of both Ms Arroyo and her ousted predecessor, Joseph Estrada, yesterday confirmed that Evardone would take over the media and logistics aspect of Team Unity's sorties as it enters the second leg of the 90-day campaign period.

But he will retain his title as campaign manager, he said.

Asked to describe his renamed responsibilities, German said he would basically be the "brains" of the campaign and Evardone, the action man.

Another fresh face joining Team Unity is Antonio "Bongot" Albano, who has been designated deputy of the group's spokesperson, Tourism Secretary Ace Durano.

THE GOVERNMENT YESTERDAY COMPLETED THE CONtroversial sale of its indirect stake in Philippine Long Distance Telephone Co. (PLDT) to the local unit of Hong Kong-based First Pacific Co. Ltd. controlled by Indonesia's Salim Family.

The signing ceremony for the deal between Metro Pacific Asset Holdings and the Department of Finance pushed through despite a last-ditch attempt by its critics to stop the P25.2 billion sale.

"We are delighted to finally close this transaction which is the third-biggest privatization done by the Philippine government after Petron and Fort Bonifacio," Finance Secretary Margarito Teves said.

Hope-James-Kris row morphs into battle of the bulge

By Bayani San Diego Jr.

FROM A BATTLE OF PREGNANT WOMEN, the Hope-James-Kris love triangle is turning into a battle of the bulge of a business sort.

In the latest twist in this real-life telenovela, Dr. Vicki Belo, the owner of the cosmetic surgery chain where Kris Aquino's husband James Yap reportedly had a 10-month sexual dalliance with Hope Centeno, one of the clinic's receptionists, said the scandal may have been the offshoot of a conflict between her and a disgruntled employee.

According to Belo, this former employee is now working with a rival clinic also specializing in liposuction and other body shaping procedures to help men and women beat the bulge.

Belo, who said that she had come out in the open because her clinic had been portrayed as a "whorehouse," said she herself met the "ta-

PCGG admits Marcoses, cronies have upper hand

By Jerry E. Esplanada

WIELDING THEIR "POWER AND unlimited resources," the Marcoses and their cronies have successfully blocked the government's 21-year efforts to recover their ill-gotten wealth, officials of the Presidential Commission on Good Government said yesterday.

"The government machineries have proven effete," said PCGG Commissioner Tereso Javier.

PCGG Chair Camilo Sabio admitted, edged during a news conference that "for the moment, nakahintay (it is difficult)."

"I am not saying we cannot do it, but it will take time. We are trying our best to achieve our mandate, our task," Sabio said.

Commissioners Narciso Nario and Nicasio Conti said they remained optimistic and determined in recovering more stolen assets accumulated by the late President Ferdinand Marcos, his immediate family, relatives and close associates.

The PCGG expects to recover an additional P110 billion in ill-gotten wealth during the remainder of President Macapagal-Arroyo's term, includ-

RP stocks tumble as world markets skid

Wall Street's overnight slide causes more jitters

By Elizabeth Sanchez-Lucas

LOCAL SHARE PRICES TUMBLED 7.92-PERCENT YESTERDAY IN a sharp reaction to skidding Asian markets, with the key index ending at its lowest level in six weeks, dealers said.

They said investors were rattled by the sell-off on Wall Street overnight that followed a sharp fall on the Shanghai market Tuesday on concerns that prices were over-inflated.

The Philippine Stock Exchange index tumbled 263.84 points or 7.9 percent to 3,067.43, its weakest close since Jan. 17, when it settled at 3,041.38.

This was the index's biggest percentage decline since Jan. 9, 1995, when the PSEi lost 8.33 percent, the PSE said.

It was also the biggest points decline since Feb. 28, 1994, when the old Makati and Manila stock exchanges adopted a new method in computing the index, the PSE said.

Losers overwhelmed gainers 139 to four, while six stocks were unchanged. Volume turnover swelled to 23.3 billion shares valued at P12.5 billion.

In mid-day trade, Shanghai appeared to have regained its composure and was trading steady.

"The sell-offs in the US and China markets have caused worldwide jitters. This is definitely a good reality check and for the Philippine market, it's the major correction that we have been waiting for," said Arsenio del Castillo of First Grade Holdings Inc.

Analysts said the Philippine economy remained stable and the drop could be a good chance for fund managers to start accumulating stocks before any upward correction.

"The country's economic fundamentals are solid because of the appropriate policies set by the government," said Ron Rodrigo, research head at Unicapital Securities.

"Investors are jittery all over the place," said Francisco Liboro, president of PCCI Securities, saying Tuesday's sell-off in China had triggered a chain reaction around the world.

"We don't know how steep the slide will go ... how long the panic will last. But clearly at these levels there is some good buying opportunities," Liboro said.

Elsewhere, investors dumped Asian shares and emerging market bonds yesterday as a global sell-off that started in China gathered steam after Wall Street stocks shed more than 3 percent.
